

2022 Sponsorships/Grants/Small and Individual Donations

2022 FORUM SPONSORSHIPS/ SUPPORTERS

$20,000 – Pfizer

$5,000 – The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society / Our Cafecito Sponsor

$5,000 – UCSF Helen Diller Family Comprehensive Cancer Center/Office of Community Engagement

$1,000 – Bay Area Community Health Advisory Council

LEVEL $25,000 AND ABOVE

$56,000 – California Initiative to Advance Precision Medicine (CIAPM 3rd Yr)

In partnership with the Stanford University Comprehensive Cancer Center and the Office of Community Engagement, TLCI is engaged in a 4-year research grant ending October 2024 to measure the value add of promotores/community health workers who provide support services along the cancer continuum from community education and outreach through navigation into screenings and cancer diagnosis and treatment.

$50,000 – Silicon Valley Community Foundation (SVCF) LatinX Fund

Provides capacity building funds for staff development and succession planning.

$25,000 – California Commission on the Status of Women (CCSW)

Support to develop an internship program for students and promotores to build capacity around cancer education and outreach.

LEVEL $10,000 TO $25,000

$10,000 – Stanford SPHERE Grant

Supports design of our Training HUB for preliminary launch in 2024

LEVEL UP TO $10,000

$5,000 – AstraZeneca

This small grant is dedicated to development of our asset map. The pilot is projected to launch in 2023.

$3,000 – UCSF Helen Diller Family Comprehensive Cancer Center, Office of Community Engagement

$2,500 – Omnicom Health

$2,000 – Association of Community Cancer Centers

$2,000 – SSD Enterprise

$2,000 – SHARE

$1,200 – National Association of Genetic Counselors

LEVEL INDIVIDUAL DONORS UNDER $5,000

$1268 – Paul Gleason

$1265 – Network for Good

$606 – Other

Help Support Our Mission

www.latinocancerinstitute.org/support-donate

