

Talking about cancer won't kill us, the silence will!

Save the dates for a series of weekly workshops discussing the latest trends in Latinos and cancer. The weekly series concludes with the 6th Annual National Forum.

Free to attend. Live simultaneous Spanish interpretation provided.

Virtual Friday Forum Series, Sept 20th - Oct 25th

The Latino Cancer Institute, in collaboration with the FDA's Oncology Center of Excellence, National Hispanic Family Cancer Awareness Week, Sept 20 -26th, presents

Friday Forum Series

9:00 am - 10:30 am PST • 11:00 am - 12:30 pm CDT • 12:00 pm - 1:30 pm EST

Sept. 20 Trends in Cancer We Can't Afford to Ignore Anymore!

Sept. 27 Genetic Findings Driving Blood Cancer in Latinos

Oct. 4 One Step Forward, Two Steps Back - Advances and Barriers in Latina Breast Cancer

Oct. 11 How Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Health Tech Intersect in Latino Live

Oct. 18 Can the HPV Vaccine Help Conquer Latina Cervical Cancer?

6th Annual National Forum

9:00 am - 12:00 pm PST • 11:00 am - 2:00 pm CDT • 12:00 pm - 3:00 pm EST

Oct. 25 – The Latest from Inside the National Cancer Institute with the new NCI Director

Register for the Series and the Forum.

